DOCTOR OF LAWS (LL.D.)

THE HONOURABLE SHERMAN ADAMS

The Assistant to the President of the United States

Born in East Dover, Vermont, Governor Adams is descended on his father's side from Henry Adams who established the Quincy, Massachusetts, branch in the early colonial period. He received his elementary and secondary education in Providence, Rhode Island, where he moved with his parents. Graduated from Hope High School in 1916, he entered Dartmouth College, where he interrupted his college career to enlist with the United States Marine Corps in 1918, and returned to receive his degree in 1920. Following his college career, he rapidly rose to management of a prominent lumber concern in New Hampshire. He was elected to the state House of Representatives in 1940 and on his reelection in 1942, he became Speaker of the House. In 1944 he was a delegate to the Republican National Convention. That same year, Governor Adams was elected to the United States Congress. He became Governor of New Hampshire in 1948 and was reelected in 1950. He was one of the first men of national prominence to urge the nomination of General Eisenhower to the Republican candidacy for President. In January of 1953, he was appointed by President Eisenhower as The Assistant to the President.

A former trustee of Dartmouth College and the University of New Hampshire, Governor Adams has been honored by degrees from Dartmouth, the University of New Hampshire, New England College, and St. Lawrence University. He is a past commander of the American Legion, Honorary Supreme Archon of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and a member of the New Hampshire Chapter, Sons of American Revolution.

DOCTOR OF LAWS (LL.D.)

DR. HAROLD C. CASE

President of Boston University

Dr. Case, president of Boston University, with its 26,000 students, continues the tradition of Methodist leadership in this university. Born in Cottonwood Falls, Kansas, he received his undergraduate education at Baker University in that state. While doing graduate work at the Harvard School of Business Administration, he turned to the ministry and was graduated from the Boston University School of Theology in 1927. An outstanding leader in the Methodist Church, Dr. Case has served in pulpits in Glencoe, Illinois; Topeka, Kansas; Scranton, Pennsylvania, and Pasadena, California. He holds honorary degrees from Baker University, the Pacific School of Religion, Samuel Houston College, and the Rhode Island College of Pharmacy. He is a trustee of Baker University and Samuel Houston College. A delegate to two World Conferences, Dr. Case was a member of the Commission on World Peace of the Methodist Church and other religious conferences. His speaking engagements have taken him before more than 100 colleges and universities prior to his accepting the post of President of Boston University. He has also spoken before such groups as the World Federation of Women's Clubs, state and national conferences of industrial and social organizations, and churches in many foreign countries.

DOCTOR OF EDUCATION (D.Ed.)

REVEREND CORNELIUS B. COLLINS

Chairman, Rhode Island State Board of Education

A native of Pawtucket, Rhode Island, Father Collins was educated in the elementary schools of that city. He received his high school and college education at St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish, Nova Scotia. His Superior First Class License from his Provincial Normal College was awarded in Truro, Nova Scotia. After an additional year of philosophy in Montreal, he studied theology for two years in St. Paul, Minnesota, after which he was sent to the American College of the University of Louvain in Belgium, where he was ordained. Returning to Rhode Island, Father Collins taught classics at La Salle Academy for nine years. When he was thirty-five years old, he was appointed President of St. Paul's College in Winnipeg, Manitoba. In 1935, he returned to La Salle Academy as Spiritual Director, during which time he was appointed Diocesan Director of Religious Instruction by the Bishop of Providence. In 1941 he was sent to the National Office of Religious Instruction in Washington, D. C., where he became Religious Consultant at the National Office of the USO during World War II. In 1946 he returned to Rhode Island where he was assigned as Pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Block Island, and after that, of St. Bernard's Church in Wickford. He was appointed to his present post in 1951 by the Governor of the State. An honorary degree was conferred on him by his alma mater, in Nova Scotia, in 1931.

DOCTOR OF LAWS (LL.D.)

MISS INEZ GRAHAM

Headmistress, The Graham-Eckes School, Palm Beach, Florida

Born in Minnesota and educated in private schools, Miss Graham also attended Northwestern Conservatory, the University of Minnesota and Columbia University in New York. A major in music and very active in musical circles in her state, she conducted a private piano studio, and worked with the University of Minnesota in connection with the "Matinee Musical". She is also a member of the Professional Women's Club of Duluth, Minnesota. In 1926 she organized with Miss Evelyn Eckes, the Graham-Eckes School at Daytona Beach, which moved to Palm Beach in 1941. Miss Eckes is a member of the National Association of Principals of Girls' Schools, the Cum Laude Society, the Educational Records Bureau, the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Her speaking engagements include talks before the Palm Beach Rotary Club and the West Palm Beach Kiwanis.

DR. CLEMENT KENNEDY

President of The New Ocean House, Swampscott, Massachusetts

Colonel Kennedy was born in Fall River, Massachusetts. He is a descendant of Stephen Hopkins, a passenger on the Mayflower and member of the original Jamestown Colony. A graduate of Worcester Academy and Harvard University he served for two years as a Lieutenant in the Air Corps during World War I. On his return to this country he entered the hotel business at the New Ocean House where he has been president and general manager since 1925. He has lectured on hotel management at Boston, and Cornell Universities. He was decorated twice by Pope Pius XII with the Orders of Knight of Malta and Knight of the Holy Sepulcher with Equestrian rank. He served throughout World War II, for four years as a member of the General Staff Corps.

He served his alma mater as Governor of the Harvard Club of Boston and in other committees. In 1951 and 1952, Colonel Kennedy was Chairman of the Resort Hotels Committee of the American Hotel Association. For eight years he was a vice-president and trustee of the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital in Boston. He has been decorated with the Legion of Honor by the French Government and the Legion of Merit by the United States Army. He is president of the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants, Sons of the American Revolution and Society of First Families of Virginia, among others. Colonel Kennedy is chairman of the Massachusetts Branch of the National Security Committee and a member of the Advisory Committee on Civilian Defense of that state. He was a member of the Hotel Advisory Committee of the National Production Authority. He is a trustee of Worcester Academy, Hillside School and Lynn Hospital and a director of several banking institutions and insurance companies.

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (D.S. IN B.A.)

JOHN H. McMAHON

Chairman of the Board of Berkshire Fine Spinning Associates, Inc.

A native Rhode Islander, Mr. McMahon was educated in the schools of this state and was graduated from Bryant College of Business Administration in 1911. After entering the employ of the Valley Falls Company in Albion, Rhode Island, he became vice-president in charge of operations until 1929. He was treasurer of the Fort Dummer Mills in Brattleboro, Vermont, and held the same position with the Coventry Company in Anthony, Rhode Island. On the merger of seven plants, he was named vice president in charge of production, the merged companies becoming known as the Berkshire Manufacturing Company. In 1931 Mr. McMahon was elected president and in 1949 became Chairman of the Board of Directors. He is a director of the New England Electric System, the Rhode Island Hospital Trust Company and the Rhode Island Advisory Board of the Liberty Mutual Insurance Company. Mr. McMahon is a member of the Advisory Commission of the Rhode Island Development Council, and of the Board of Trustees of Bryant College. He is also a member of the New York Athletic Club and the Merchants' Club of New York.
